STAGE FRIGHT FOR GOLFERS

Reversal of Form Is Shown in First Day's Play in Denver Tourney.

MINIKAHDA MAN TURNS IN THE LOWEST SCORE

School Boy Proves Second Best Man on Links in the Preliminaries.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 15.—Seldom has a tournament where golfers of national reputation gathered shown such a reversal of form as was shown in the first day's medal play for the trans-Mississippi title today. Those who turned in cards below 90 for the eighteen holes are practically certain to qualify for the first round of match play, unless another series of fizzes and misplays attack the field tomorrow.

Colonel Bogey was relegated to the background, and "stage fright" took his place as the mythical opponent, against which the big field struggled in vain.

Harry C. Legg of Minnikahda, the present title holder, was the only starter who turned in a card below 90, his score of 77 leading the field. There was never a moment's let down in his play, which improved from the first hole, where a formidable array of perils greet the nervous golfer, to the eighteenth. It was left for a nineteen-year-old school boy, Lawrence Bromfield, of the Denver club, to contest with the title holder for the honors for the first round. Bromfield finished with

MAJOR TAYLOR RACES IVER LAWSON TONIGHT

Colored Star and Local Favorite Will Meet at Salt Palace Saucer.

The match sprint race between Iver Lawson and Major Taylor will be held at the Salt Palace saucer track tonight. Both riders have just completed systematic training for the event, and each is riding in his best form. Among those familiar with the riding of both men, Major Taylor is picked by a majority to win. However, the bicycle fans are overwhelmingly with Lawson and will give him all the encouragement in the world to win. The race will be the best two in three mile heats for a purse of $500, the largest offered this season at the bicycle track. The winner will get $500.

Major Taylor and Iver Lawson are both ex-champions of the world, and each is considered one of the best sprint riders who ever mounted a bicycle. The negro cyclist came to Salt Lake for the purpose of racing Lawson and Clarke and will do his utmost to win tonight's race from the local favorite.

In addition to the big match race, which will be the feature event, there will be a two-mile open lap race and a three-quarter mile handicap for professionals. Jackie Clarke, the little Australian star, who was too ill to appear at the last race meet, will be with the professionals again tonight. For the amateurs there will be an Australian pursuit and an unknown distance lap race.

The complete programme for tonight follows:

Major Taylor vs. Iver Johnson, best two in three one-mile heats, $500 purse, divided $500 and $500.

Two-mile open lap, professional.

Three-quarter mile handicap, professional.

Australian pursuit, amateur.

Unknown distance lap, amateur.

Will Race Against Indian.

William Stanley, the Marathon runner, who has been in Salt Lake for a few weeks, left Monday for Grand Junction, Colo., where he will race against Young Saul, an Indian runner. The match will be at twenty miles and will be for a purse of $500. The contest is to take place next week.

At Milwaukee—Kansas City 8, Milwaukee 2.

Oglesby Dangerous.

Lloyd Jevne defeated Dick Oglesby, 50 to 33, Monday night in the practice three-cushion tourney at the Jevne Billiard academy in 96 innings. High runs, Jevne 7, Oglesby 6. Oglesby played splendid billiards at the start of the match. It looked like he would beat the ex-champion even, but Jevne got going and could not be stopped. A great crowd was present and the game was exciting from start to finish. Mangham plays Jevne Tuesday night.

In addition to his career of more than half a century in minstrelsy, Mr. Simmons has a long record on the diamond. In the course of his baseball career Mr. Simmons was the owner and manager of the Philadelphia Athletics from 1881 to 1887 and he never tires of telling of the brilliant plays of his team-mates twenty-five or thirty years ago.

"In 1892," said Mr. Simmons Monday, "we organized the old American association baseball league with six clubs. The pennant was won that year by the Cincinnati club. The next year the Philadelphia Athletics won the flag after one of the greatest pennant races in the history of baseball."

Race for the Pennant.

"We were playing at Louisville and needed only one game of the series of four to clinch the pennant. St. Louis was in second place and needed four straight to beat us out. It looked like a certainty for us to win and a great celebration awaited us on our return to Philadelphia."

"The excitement attendant on winning the flag was too much for our boys and we dropped the first two to Louisville. St. Louis won the first two of its series. Then I began to get worried. For the third game I sent in Jumping Jack Johnson to pitch for us. He was a new man to earth and played a good game. At the end of the eighth inning the score was 5 to 1 in our favor and the flag was within our grasp."

"Louisville was first at bat. Everything looked so favorable that Johnson let down for a moment. Then Stan Sang, what did those Colonels do but pound Johnson all over the lot, and when the merry chase around the bases was over they had tied the score."

"When we came up to bat I was crazy with excitement. It was the last half of the ninth, with the score tied and we had to win the game to win the pennant. I think I would have committed

"BOOMERANG BILL" BLOWS INTO TOWN

Self-Styled King of Tramps Discusses His Travels at Far Too Great a Length.

A guy blew into The Tribune office at 12:20 o'clock this, Tuesday, morning and flashed this mark of alleged identification:

"Boomerang Bill, King of Tramps; home, Any Old Place."

Boomerang, unsolicited, thrust upon a long-suffering reporter the information that this is the finishing lap of his sixth time around the world, which is probably a pipe.

Boomerang is a loquacious kazaz that talks and talks and stands not upon the order of his talking—nor his going, either. He imparted the additional important knowledge that he is never going to work again, which is probably true.

Boomerang knows all about the methods of every police judge from Bermuda to Utah. He knows just how many days there is in store for him at each task; also he is fully informed on the exact geographical location of multitudinous rock piles, he says.

Boomerang Bill was asked if he would like to take a whirl at the incarceration game in the Salt Lake City bastille (with apologies to the Murray correspondent). He said he'd take a look at the temple first with a view to buying it, and this notoriety-lunged wanderer said he had since met up with a copper.

The reporter, filled with the knowledge that patience is a virtue and that he could not sleep in jail this morning unless he was locked up, said he'd take a look at the temple first with a view to buying it, and this notoriety-lunged wanderer said he had since met up with a copper.

HARMON DETERMINES TO STOP GAMBLING

Ohio's Governor Refuses to Permit Pool Selling at Grand Circuit Races.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 15.—Governor Harmon's crusade against gambling and pool selling at race meets has resulted in the calling off of three of the four days of racing which was scheduled to start at Rockport, this county, today.

Instead of the programme of harness races today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, there will be racing only on Wednesday, when two $1000 stake events will be run off.

Rockport is on the Lake Erie light harness circuit. One other Ohio city on the circuit is Akron, where races are scheduled for August 23, 24, 25 and 26. Horsemen fear the governor's opposition to bookmaking will result in the calling off of all but the stake events at that meeting.

Sheriff Hirsutius' determination to stop betting at the races has resulted in a situation with Governor Harmon over the telephone, in which the sheriff was requested to send Martinus up, and coming fast, took the lead on the stretch turn and won galloping by three lengths. A special race at six furlongs, which has been arranged for Wednesday, between Textile, Novelty and Horizon, has created considerable interest in following the automobile. Nevertheless he kept up his mile-a-minute gallop, and established a new world's record.

Samuelson proved his versatility by winning the five-mile open professional race for motorcycles. In this race his only serious contender was his brother, T. M. Samuelson. The two brothers were close contestants for several laps during the race. Finally W. E. Samuelson got by his brother, and kept a safe lead the rest of the way. Hubert Kettle, the Los Angeles star, who has been touted as an opponent of Whittier and De Bowser, could do no better than finish fourth.

In the ten-mile professional motorcycle race the scratch men could not overcome the handicap of the front markers, and J. A. McNeil, with a handicap of three laps, won the race. T. M. Samuelson had lapped McNeil twice, and was close to him for the third lap when the race was ended. He was in second place. W. E. Samuelson took third, Clayton fourth and Kettle fifth.

Bert Smalling, driving a Packard automobile owned by Samuel Newhouse, went five miles on the track in 4:46. Smalling held the machine on the track in a magnificent manner and made each mile well under the minute.

From a standing start Carl Balke, the clever trade rider, made two miles in 1:46.5, establishing a new track record for the distance.

B. E. Duval easily won the three-mile race for private owners. C. L. Westlake, with a handicap of four laps, won the six-mile race for trade riders.

The Summary.

Three-mile amateur, private owners, 4-horsepower machines—B. E. Duval won, 1:46.5; second, Carl K. Winter third, 2:40 1-5.

Five-mile professional open, 7-horsepower machines—W. E. Samuelson first, T. M. Samuelson second, G. S. Clayton, Jr. third, H. Kettle fourth. Time, 4:17 3-5.

Also Wins Five-Mile Open Professional Motorcycle Race in Fast Time.

W. E. Samuelson proved to be the star of the races at the Wandamere motordrome Monday night. With all of his old-time form, the former champion pace follower of the world rode the fastest mile ever made on a three-lap track on a bicycle. Paced by a Packard automobile, with Bert Smalling driving, Samuelson rode a mile on the Wandamere motordrome in 1:00 3-5. The Wandamere track is ill adapted to bicycle riding, and Samuelson found considerable difficulty in following the automobile. Nevertheless he kept up his mile-a-minute gallop, and established a new world's record.

Veteran Baseball Player Tells How Athletics Won the Pennant

During his stay in Salt Lake this week Lew Simmons, the veteran comedian, is watching with keen interest the returns of the games in which the Philadelphia Athletics participate. The clinch that Connie Mack's team appears to have on the American league pennant is a source of great gratification to Mr. Simmons, who takes a proprietary interest in the club.

In addition to his career of more than half a century in minstrelsy, Mr. Simmons has a long record on the diamond. In the course of his baseball career Mr. Simmons was the owner and manager of the Philadelphia Athletics from 1881 to 1887 and he never tires of telling of the brilliant plays of his team-mates twenty-five or thirty years ago.
